The Times says, after the offninous land stating what each one can have, are first up in entire the president, we can no longer are taken out without regard to choose and sept by three seconds by Mr. Ferdinand, the great mell, thus giving a far change. On receipt of the Baby Tamer, at the Gallary of the Cumber-

sued by President Johnson or Lincoln. He said an impression had prevailed since Johnson's accession that new claims had been made in a totally different spirit; that impression was altogether unfounded. Mr. Seward said no fresh demand had been made.

The rupture between the Emperer and Prince Napoleon was complete. The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says that the great unpardonable was in the present delicate crises of the Mexican meetion, the Prince glorying in the Monree dectrine. He feeling persuaded if the consequence of the restoration of the Union world be the utter impossibility of the French occupation of Mexico without fear
